“Looking Unto Jesus”

*'76 FINIAL
Columbia Bible College
Columbia, S. C.
Volume XXXVII*

Each new day brings us into a deeper realization of our main purpose and goal in life, a keen awareness to know Him and to make Him known. Apart from His Word we cannot know Him, apart from His life in us we cannot make Him known.

“Come Together”

The '76 FINIAL endeavors to give an accurate account of the Columbia Bible College scene — inside and out.

Looking unto Jesus we set our sights high. Above and beyond ourselves, our dreams and plans, we seek His will, stay ourselves in His love and stand on His promises.

“We Would See Jesus”

“In the Morning Will I Direct My Prayer Unto Thee, and Will Look Up.” Ps. 5:3

We function as a family and enjoy each other as we share in the common bond of God's love.

We Appreciate You . . .

We dedicate the 1976 FINIAL to one who is very much a part of us; someone who has taken God's interest in us and conveyed His love to us; an individual who stands with us; a man who has unselfishly given his time and energy relating his life to ours.

Dr. and Mrs. Anthony C. Fortosis

"Doc!"

We say THANK YOU for walking with us each day and talking to us about the things that really matter — those things that are everyday matters, essential to effectively communicate the message and life of Christ to others. THANK YOU for challenging us to THINK — giving God an in-road to teach us more about Himself.

By putting others first, yourself last, and God always, you have made us feel loved, needed and important; but most of all, you have satisfied the heart of God for this "is well pleasing in His sight."

TOP LEFT: Some have only encountered him in glass, but that is an experience in itself. BOTTOM LEFT: This is his 3th year of serving on faculty at CBE.

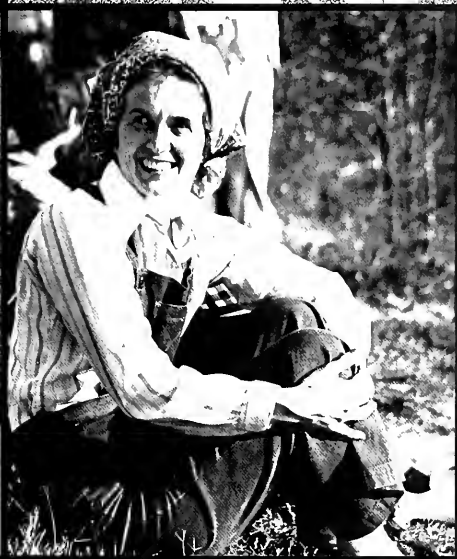

TOP RIGHT: Some have shared heart to heart with him and found a true friend. BOTTOM RIGHT: His time is invested wisely.

J. R. McQuilkin President

"Keep looking unto Jesus till you're looking LIKE Jesus. Then when others look to you they will be looking to Jesus reflected. Just another way to say, To Know Him and To Make Him Known."

Faculty, staff, and students alike look to President McQuilkin for academic and spiritual leadership. Seeking the Lord's direction, he guides CBC in its relationship to the total church, the community, and world missions.

Alumni Association

More than 3,000 men and women now hold degrees, diplomas, or certificates from Columbia Bible College. However, the association consists of over 4,000 members because any former students showing interest in the association are given full membership. Honorary membership is granted to faculty, board members and others appointed by the executive committee for special reasons.

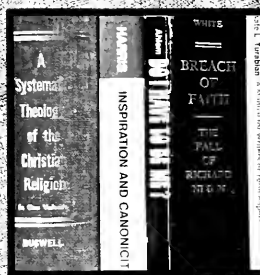

The alumni association was organized during commencement week, 1930. In drawing up its constitution, the association stated that its aim was to "cooperate with the Bible college and its purpose as expressed in the motto, 'To Know Him and to Make Him Known'; to promote fellowship among the graduates; to combine our efforts for the work of the Bible college." In its effort to fulfill these aims, the alumni association publishes the Ce&Cequel and mails it to all former students who maintain an interest in the Bible college, promotes chapter meetings in those areas where there is a concentration of alumni, provides field tape-libraries, contains a directory and information service, provides a personal counseling service, and has projects to benefit Columbia Bible College. This year the $70,000 alumni project is aimed at assisting the new FM radio station.

Frank A. Fry, president of the association, works closely with the executive committee of the Bible college, and prayerfully they seek to win others to an active interest in the school. This year Mr. Fry also served as director of extension ministries. Miss Goldie Plank completed her second year as secretary in the alumni office, and Mrs. Mittie Hatch and Mr. Richard Melick were elected to membership in the executive committee.

Executive Committee members Jack Matthews, Mittie Hatch, Frank Fry (President), Rose McQuay, Richard Melick, and Alumni Office Secretary, Goldie Plank.

S E N I O R S

"I'm Gonna Graduate"

I remember the first day we came; we were so excited. We met Deb Northcutt and Armond LeBlanc, our big sis and big brother. Orientation and the New Student Social were really fun — but then they hit us with homework. We were the first class to take Western Man.

I remember that first Christmas vacation. We were glad to leave, but our joy was even greater upon returning to school and to our friends. That developed into a pattern. We began to call school home, and coming back was our homecoming. We have developed some relationships here that will be meaningful and vital throughout all eternity.

I remember eating in the old Dining Hall. That was such a cozy place. Everyone knew what everyone else was doing in those days — good old “Social Pressure” — I hated to see it go.

I remember the Chapel Hour. Many were life changing. The experiences of so many godly men have become a wealth of personal blessing. Their lives have enriched ours.

I remember a lot of special times. I’ll never forget the time Mrs. Sadler gave us a tour of the Wax Museum. And Pat Terry was enjoyed by everyone. There were Halloween parties, Esrever Days, Open Houses, Sing Outs and so many other great times.

I laugh and cry both, as I remember these past days. How I’ll miss the warm talks and times of laughter! Though leaving is difficult, I’ll go out “Looking unto Jesus” to bless all the tomorrows as He has so richly blessed my years at Columbia Bible College.

We have gained a quiet confidence during our days here in God's infinite power to provide everything that we need. As we move on from this place, we go convinced that our Loving Father will guide our every step as we trust in Him. We are trusting Him for our life partners, our ministries, and every other task which He has in His plan for us. We know that as we look unto Jesus He will reveal that plan.

Looking Unto Jesus . . .

Finding Christ as their personal Savior was the first step for the Freshmen on a journey to Columbia Bible College. Here they are discovering more God's truth and themselves. As God's Word is a lamp unto their path, they take each new stride with confidence.

Entering CBC is a first, eager step for Freshmen as they begin to get an orientation to Christian college life. Most come with the deep and joyous conviction of God's clear leading.

A class is made of unique individuals. As each individual "looks unto Jesus" and shares what he sees, the Lord is magnified and true body-life develops.

OBJECTIVES OF WOMEN'S PE:

- 1.) Develop a true sense of sportsmanship.
- 2.) Develop a life habit of proper health care.
- 3.) Develop competence in various sports.
- 4.) Develop an enjoyable, sharing time for all in PE.
- 5.) Foster an intramural program where all aspects of a Christian life are involved.
- 6.) Develop an interschool team sharing the love of Jesus Christ.
- 7.) Develop a well-balanced life.

Student Council Because He Cares, We Care

Involvement is the aim of Student Council this year. Relationships between on-and-off-campus students, grads and undergrads, faculty and students, must be filled with understanding and love. Community and world involvement are also imperative. So the Student Council established a famine relief fund at the request of concerned students.

Seeing Him in All Things

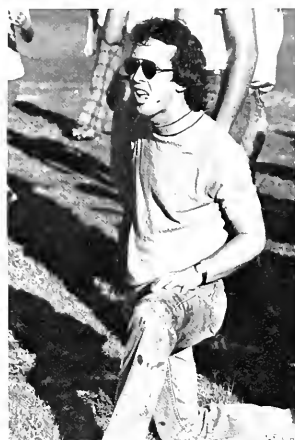

College service, socializing, thinking, relaxing, relating to faculty: all are essential to growth and maturity. Students participate in a wide variety of happenings, learning in all things to see Jesus.

In light of the needs in the world, we have been challenged to adopt a biblical lifestyle of caring for and sharing with those in need.

It Happens Here MEN'S DORM COUNCIL

"Behold how pleasant it is for the brethren to dwell together in unity." Men's Dorm Council keeps busy maintaining order in the dorms and guiding students to maturity. Living and learning together is an exciting experience.

RULERS OF THE ROOST: Stu Stout, Sec-Treas.; Stu Scott, Gabe Galdo, Nash Hestor, Ron Williams, Dana Pettit, Floor-leaders: Joe Fera, V. Pres.; Cris Salmon, Pres.; Don Winter, Bob Evans, Wes Peach, R. A.'s; Bell West, A. J. Vidal, floorleaders.

Learning to live with others is a vital part of CBC dorm life. We're here to study, but sometimes playing, sharing, working, and being together teach us more than the books do.

"Happiness consists . . . in small conveniences and pleasures that occur every day."

— Ben Franklin

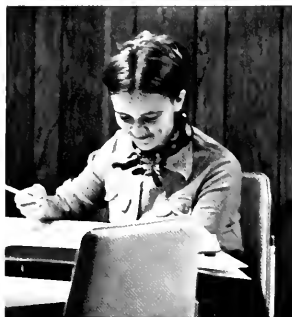

Sharing our lives and personalities, each one of us unique in God's sight, dorm life provides many creative and helpful outlets to the tensions of studies and activities. Talking, exercising, working, and goofing off are beautiful means of getting to know one another.

Grads Encourage Each Other

Arriving at CBC after years of work or secular training, the Grads come to study. They are aware of the issues in the world and seek Biblical wisdom to answer them. Most of the on-campus men inhabit D5-B, but those in the house know Brian Prillaman (Below left) as their leader.

Many of the Grad women had never lived in a Christian environment before coming to CBC, so they revel in the year(s) spent studying and sharing here. The women who share four modules and a house on Faculty Row are a close group. "The closer we are to Jesus, the closer we are to each other."

MOD MOMS: Cathy Grayson, Vivian Johnson, Bee Van Engen, Martha Wolfe, Jeanne Ropp.

"Grant, O Lord, that in the weariness of unceasing work, our intercourse with thee may be ever fresh."

Student Foreign Missions Fellowship "Missions Impossible"

Our goal is to inform and involve students so that they are brought to total dedication to the principle of Missions. Bi-weekly chapels and Saturday evening meetings inform students of needs and opportunities. Weekly prayer groups focus on specific needs in the world.

MISSIONS: God's Work of Bringing Christ to the World —

Through Me

We challenge you to:

- 1) Consider your role in world evangelization. Ask God — How can I best involve my life in your program of world redemption?
- 2) Consider Foreign Missions as a live option. Instead of saying, "I am going to serve in the USA unless God calls me overseas," pray: "I am going overseas unless God calls me to stay."

PAUL DAVIS: This summer God showed me a portion of the great need in the world, and that He wants me to be one through whom the gospel is made known (Jamaica).

LINDA BARNETT: God is a very personal and protecting God (Zambia).

CAROL GOODRICH: God taught me to trust Him for who He is and to trust Him to use me in the way which would most please Him (Austria).

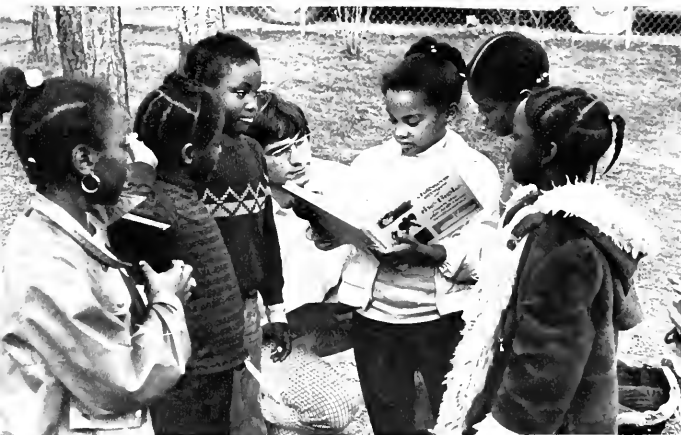

BECKY DUHAN: To be effective for Him in a spiritually famished land, one must DAILY set before himself the goals he finds in scripture. Christlikeness and total witness don't just happen (Austria).

Christian Service

Because He First Loved Us

Christian Service provides an outlet for the Biblical knowledge we receive. In obeying the great commission, we find opportunities for counseling, sharing, and giving out the knowledge we've gained during the week.

TOP: Learning through working in local churches. CENTER: Students teaching at several correctional institutions use creative methods to explain the Word. BOTTOM: Bible clubs show children the Good News of Jesus Christ while teachers develop delightful friendships!

"And so, as those who have been chosen of God, holy and beloved, put on a heart of compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience;" Colossians 3:12

TOP: Children's work is rewarding, often bringing lasting results. Many of us were saved as children and have continued with the Lord since. MIDDLE: Students teach weekly in area schools. Many children who would not otherwise hear are confronted with the gospel. BOTTOM: God has burdened some students to reach the USC campus. Here, at a Bible study, they edify one another. Many of us who minister in this way once attended secular schools ourselves and we are aware of the special needs this group of believers has in its difficult world.

"Suffer the little children, forbid them not to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven."
Matthew 19:14

Internship '75

The Internship program gives academic credit to students involved in fulltime Christian work during the summer. Many work in churches in the United States while others go overseas. Students are able to put their knowledge into practice and come back with a renewed spirit to learn.

MINDY MAURER: I learned about God's love, care, and faithfulness to me (top).

AARON ERICKSON: God taught me that He answers prayers specifically (left).

DAVE MAJORS: I learned my personal strengths and weaknesses (bottom).

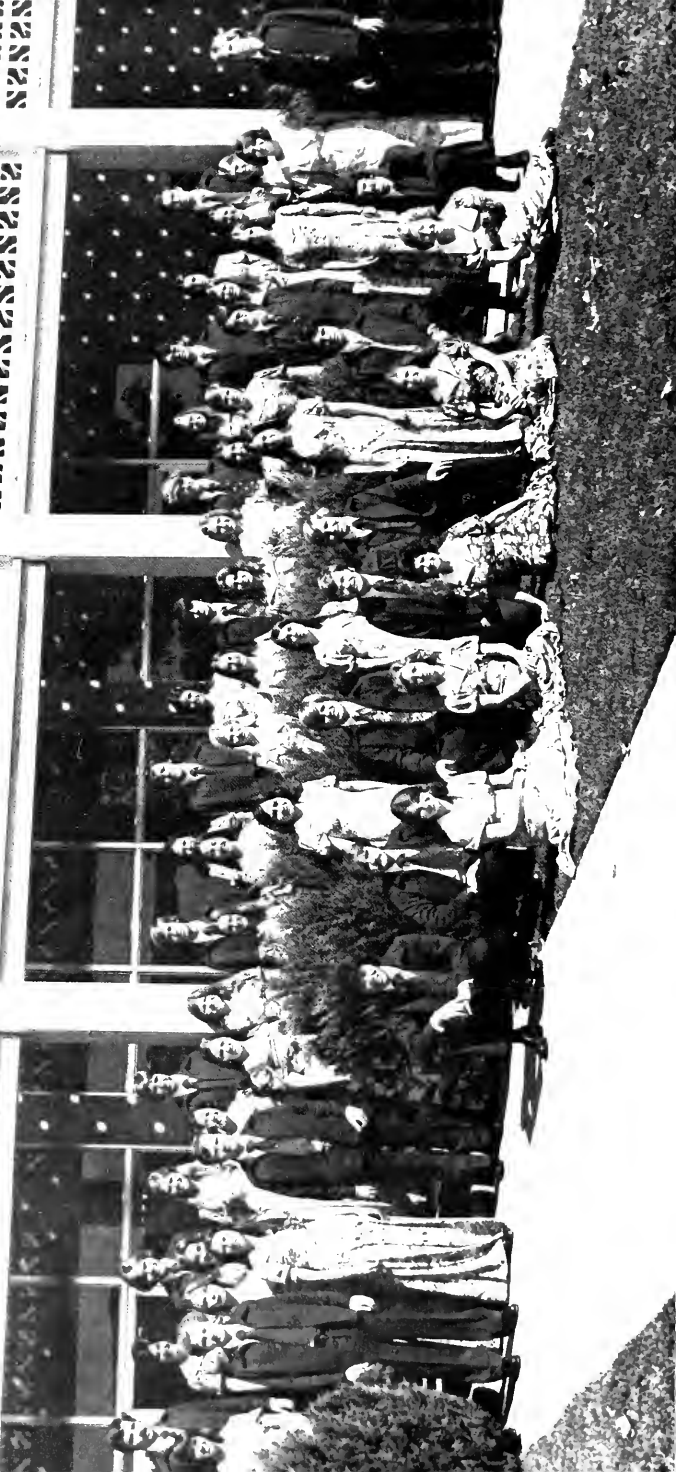

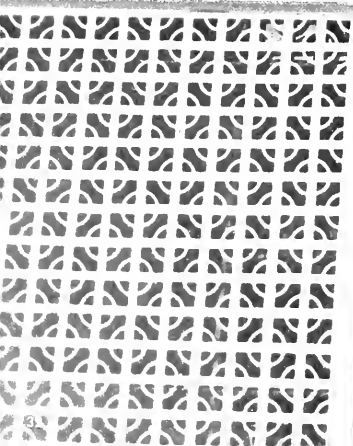

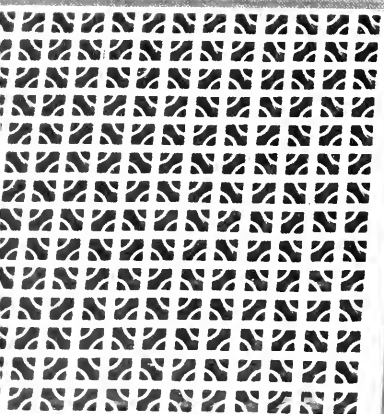

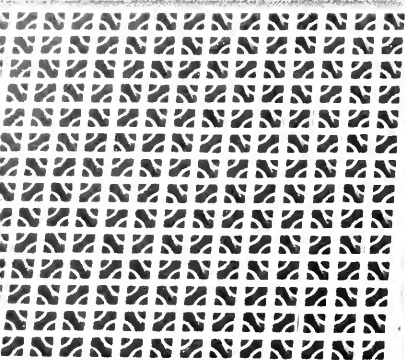

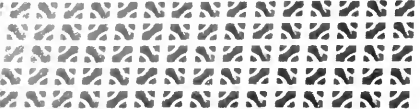

KEN LUPTON: "For this love of Christ, no sacrifice is too great, no piece of service too humble."

TOM BROWER: In order to constantly give anything of eternal value to another person, I must first be constantly RECEIVING into my own heart the truths of God.

LIBBY SMITH: God can take a shy, fearful girl and use her in the lives of others.

GARRY KNUSSMAN: God taught me patience and trust in Him for every detail of life.

"Each day in Europe presented the inescapable fact that God was with us. Our 40 concerts turned out to be wonderful opportunities for sharing the victorious Christian life with thousands of Europeans. Studying, eating, and sleeping in the bus, we sped across France, Holland, Belgium, and Germany. We toured Luxembourg, Sweden, Austria, The Swiss Alps, and Italy. On our return flight to the United States we reflected with joy on our church work, street meetings, T.V. ministries, open air theater concerts, military service, and one service in a 5,000 seat big-top tent. The team prayed, worked, and shared in the daily problems of group ministry. God did not give us an easy tour, but He gave us a victorious tour. What more could we ask than His presence with us!"

Messengers of Christ

Summer 75

MESSENGERS OF CHRIST: Bee Van Engen, Nancy Martinez, Joel Martinez, Verne Marshall, Ken Strauss.

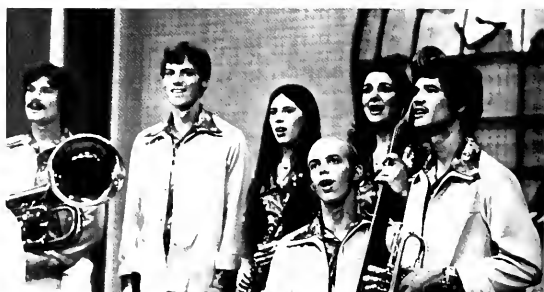

"Settling into an apartment in Bilbao, Spain, 'Mensajeros de Cristo' (Messengers of Christ) set up an active evangelistic work in conjunction with CAM missionaries. We distributed literature in the parks, the streets, and through mailboxes. Giving approximately 14 evangelistic services, we sang, gave testimonies, and preached. A team from Barcelona joined us for an exciting week of beach evangelism. Trust God with us that the seed sown will be yielding everlasting fruit! We praise God for changed lives, deepened Christian walks, new contacts and relationships, and a summer of experiencing God's unending faithfulness."

Note from the Editor:

I will never walk alone for God walks with me. I need not fear the path ahead for He knows the way I take. As for God, His way is perfect; it is God that girds me with strength and makes my crooked path straight. He has put a new song in my mouth and an expectant hope in my heart — He will never leave nor forsake me. As I walk in the light of His love, He will be the all sufficient One who enables me to take each step with confidence. He lifts my eyes when they are cast down, and He will never entrust to me more than I can bear. For He is the God of all grace, rich in mercy, with unfailing love. His everlasting arms are underneath me and His countenance is my help.

I have set the Lord always before me, I shall not be moved!
Looking unto Jesus I press on, for He is the Author and Finisher of my faith.

MY SHEPHERD

O Lord, You are my Shepherd, I Your sheep,
You picked me up when I was weak and lame,
And though I fall, I'll ne'er be lost again,
You captured my wild heart and made it tame.

'I shall not want' is real — not some days — now!
The pastures green restore my weary soul,
Your loving touch has satisfied my heart.
I lie down, knowing You will make me whole.

I know that You will lead me all the way,
Nor valley of the shadow need I fear,
For there is light beyond each shadowed form;
I'll dwell forever with my Shepherd near.

Our prayer for you;

9/3/75

Looking unto Jesus the Author and Finisher of our faith... "I am the Alpha and Omega," says the Lord God, who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty. Who has prepared and done this, calling and guiding the destinies of the generations from the beginning, I the Lord, the first and the last, I am He.

Sanctified by God the Father and preserved in Jesus Christ. The very God of peace sanctify you wholly, and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who will also do it. He which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.

Yours in Christ,

Mr. Wm H. Chatlos

With Christ,

Mrs. Ruth B. Chatlos

KEEP IN STEP WITH JESUS

I loosed my hand from His —
He walked too slow.
All the while I ran, I could feel His eyes following my every step.

Once I stopped and turned.
He had not moved.
His eyes were fixed on me, and His gaze,
mixed with love and hurt,
crushed my heart, and took away the thrill of the run.
Yet I had to keep going.
Run,
run,
and keep on running!

The pathway narrowed,
the light grew dim,
But I could not slow down.
My heart pounded
until it reached a crescendo.
My lungs heaved with every painful breath.
Bruised and bleeding, I felt each
step was my last.
Suddenly the ground rose up to meet me
and all was darkness.

In the stillness of total defeat
I heard a loving voice whisper
my name.
A strong hand clasped mine
and lifted me gently to my feet.
Without a word of reprehension,
we took a slow, deliberate
step —
TOGETHER

Cool water splashed gently as another dirty brown foot was placed in the basin.
His hands were slow and gentle
as he washed each foot
JOYFULLY,
with a smile on his lips
and a prayer in his heart for each one.

Even so, Lord Jesus,
may I serve with my towel and basin
the ones you have placed in my life.
May I JOYFULLY do the dirty-brown tasks —
with a smile on my lips and a prayer in my heart
for those I serve.
